ÎLE SAINTÉ-HÉLÈNE

UNDERSTANDING AND BUILDING OUR WORLD AND OUR STORIES TOGETHER

At the Stewart Museum, we use objects, stories and shared experiences to help our visitors better understand the world around them, no matter their age or background.

With our participatory approach and our civic perspective, we prioritize observation, interrogation, and dialogue in our activities.

Type of activity: Visit

Activity title: Nights

Target audience: All audiences

Educational area: Social sciences – Arts - Personal development (Ethics and Religion) - Languages

Length: 60 minutes (starting September 26th)

Description of the activity

A tour that lets you approach history differently, through the worlds of four authors and the stories they imagined around historical objects related to the night. A deep dive into nocturnal imagination, with stories that will not put you to sleep!

Strategies

- Observation
- Tales, stories and legends
- Collaborative games
- Questions and discussion
- Independent exploration

Attitudes developed

- Creativity
- Curiosity

Major themes addressed

- City life

The city is expanding and becoming an inspiring living space. Urban planning, civic engagement, and mobility management are important questions as the urban population continues to grow around the world.

- Growing up and ageing

Human experience is built around essential steps in the life cycle: being born, growing up, ageing and dying. The contribution of community life being different for each of these steps, we need to establish an intergenerational dialogue so that each person can contribute to the best of their ability.
