

ACTIVITY SHEET

UNDERSTANDING AND BUILDING OUR WORLD AND OUR STORIES TOGETHER

At the Stewart Museum, we use objects, stories and shared experiences to help our visitors better understand the world around them, no matter their age or background.

With our participatory approach and our civic perspective, we prioritize observation, interrogation, and dialogue in our activities.

Type of activity: Workshop

Activity title: The Story Factory

Target audience: All audiences

Educational area: Social sciences – Arts - Personal development (Ethics and Religion) - Languages

Length: 45 minutes

Description of the activity

How do we build history? What problems have been solved by objects of the past that survive to tell the story today? The History Factory is a participatory educational space that invites the public to take on challenges using a historical approach and their creative faculties.

Strategies

- Observation
- Association
- Collaborative games

Attitudes developed

- Critical thinking
- Cooperation
- Self-actualization
- Creativity

Major themes addressed

- Open-mindedness
In the effervescence of large city centres, cultures mix and mingle. Ways of living, being and doing enrich each other. From this diversity, emerge curiosities that are the source of renewed dialogue.
- Transforming the world
Humans have always wanted to control their environment by creating machines, devices, objects and new techniques. These inventions enrich our daily lives and transform our relationship to the world.
- Exodus and belonging
Shaken by wars, climate changes or poverty, migrants move towards a better future. Exodus means abandoning familiar places, experimenting new ways of life and ultimately, stand firm in the sense of belonging to a new adoptive country.
